Magicians of the Gods: The Forgotten Wisdom of Earth's Lost Civilization by Graham Hancock (2016)

An advanced civilization that flourished during the Ice Age was destroyed in the global cataclysms between 12,800 and 11,600 years ago.

Survivors - known to later cultures by names such as 'the Sages', 'the Magicians', 'the Shining Ones', and 'the Mystery Teachers of Heaven' - travelled the world in their great ships doing all in their power to keep the spark of civilization burning. They settled at key locations - Göbekli Tepe in Turkey, Baalbek in the Lebanon, Giza in Egypt, ancient Sumer, Mexico, Peru and across the Pacific where a huge pyramid has recently been discovered in Indonesia. Everywhere they went these 'Magicians of the Gods' brought with them the memory of a time when mankind had fallen out of harmony with the universe and paid a heavy price. A memory and a warning to the future...

Beowulf's Ecstatic Trance Magic: Accessing the Archaic Powers of the Universal Mind

Nicholas E. Brink Ph.D. and Stanley Krippner Ph.D. , 2016

Beowulf is the oldest piece of literature written in the English language. Sharing his ecstatic trance techniques along the way, Brink looks at Queen Wealhtheow, the wife of King Hrothgar, by Beowulf from the torment of the monster Grendel.

Queen Wealhtheow and her teacher Vanadisdotir, a priestess of the goddess Freyja, practiced the ancient magic of the seiðr workers, seers, and spirit travelers, the shamans of the time. These practices include divination through the goddess Freyr, contacting Bear spirits, and spirit journeying to various realms.
