Tarot Shadows

Facilitated by Kathy Eckert, MSW

Wednesdays, 7 pm to 9 pm, $7

After returning from our retreat last weekend, will now focus on transforming negative shadow cards into the mirror-image of that outward appearance - the tremendous healing energy available from facing and working with the shadows. As always, the approach is mainly intuitive and deeply individual, so no one coming for the first time would find that they are at a disadvantage.

The fee is still $7.00 per class, with 50% going to the library.

Email Kathy at Kathy@SeattleMetaphysicalLibrary.org if you want more information.

History Redux

Revisionist History Study Group

Monday, June 1 7 – 8:30 pm

Free for members, $5 for non-members.

This month's book is Atlantis: Alien Visitation and Genetic Manipulation, by Michael Tsarion, an eclectic researcher who has taken the study of the origins of the human race back to the time when off-worlders landed on Earth and started manipulating DNA to create a slave race.

Referencing Biblical texts, ancient texts from around the world, and indigenous oral traditions, he recounts the story of rebellion, the creation of Atlantis and Lemuria, the struggle between the Serpent Masters and their created slave-race, resulting in a nuclear war that destroyed the technology of the Serpent Masters and almost destroyed Earth.

New Books

We've received many new books recently, here are a few

Offering to Isis: Knowing the Goddess Through Her Sacred Symbols

By M Isadora Forrest

M. Isadora Forrest, an ordained priestess of the Fellowship of Isis, guides magical practitioners down a modern, devotional path to this popular Egyptian goddess. She discusses the theory and practice of ancient offering rites and shows how they can be applied today for spiritual growth and sacred magic. Readers can choose from over seventy scripted offerings to Isis-from "Acacia" to "Words of Power." Also included are the sacred hieroglyphs associated with Isis and how these powerful, magical symbols can aid in forging a strong connection with the goddess.

Ogdoadic Magick

Norman R. Kraft

A credible and meaningful text for the initiate. Aurum Solis includes a clear definition of magic for readers who want to undertake a reliable study of magic, drawing on multiple sources. Ogdoadic magic employs the eightfold star as its symbol of the earnest search for union with the divine. By examining the history of Western civilization to illustrate the esoteric significance of the number eight in Western spiritual traditions, Kraft establishes the Order Aurum Solis in a 20th Century context.

The Golden Thread: The Ageless Wisdom of the Western Mystery Traditions Joscelyn Godwin

The Golden Thread traces the interconnectedness of esoteric wisdom in the Western world, from classical antiquity to contemporary Europe and America. Joscelyn Godwin inspires us to action in our everyday spiritual practice. Each chapter references some aspect of contemporary life. Elegantly written with irony and humor, readers will appreciate the non-threatening tone of Godwin's writing, non-preachy, and informative on an often baffling field. Educated readers who are curious about the esoteric and mystery traditions and interested in finding surprising, new approaches to subjects that veer away from the trends of current thought will be particularly drawn to this book.

Jesus and Moses Were Invented Christopher M. Drew

Christopher Drew examines the dates of composition of the books of the New and Old Testaments, and the books of the Gnostic "library" found at Nag Hammadi.

The chapters are: (1) The arguments and the Bible Gospels; (2) The Hebrew Bible books; (3) The paragraph on Jesus in Josephus' "Antiquities of the Jews"; (4) Reasons for dating the Revelation to John to 41 CE; (5) The Jewish Life of Christ; (6) Comments on the Nag Hammadi Library; (7) The Nag Hammadi Library (condensed); (8) The inventors of the biblical Jesus Christ; (9) The Hebrew Bible books: Some of the authors, editors, and events that influence them.
